From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A MINDSET OF SERVICE

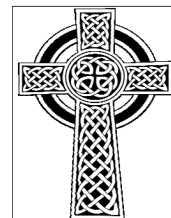

There's a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers.

The psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God's steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke's Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha, and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others.

Each of us can ask, How am I present to God and others in my life?

Yours in Christ,

/s/ Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

From Catholic Charities San Francisco:

Providing critically important immigration legal services is how we live our Mission at Catholic Charities. Our Mission is rooted in our faith traditions of charity and justice. As such, we have combined our San Francisco and San Mateo programs into a single, new division of services at Catholic Charities which will allow us to serve even more clients.

We stand in solidarity with immigrants during these alarming and challenging times, and will continue to pray for their safety, provide them with assistance, advocate for their rights, and treat them with compassion, respect and dignity.

Marin Catholic Sophomore needs Bone Marrow Donors

Earlier this year, Marin Catholic Sophomore Daniel Rose was diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL). After going through multiple treatments over the past several months, Daniel's oncology team believes a bone marrow transplant is needed to cure his leukemia. They are racing against time to preserve his hard-fought remission.

Daniel's family urges people to join a registry to see if you could be the match Daniel needs. To register, go to: <https://dkmsgetinvolved.org/eligibility>, to request a home cheek swab kit mailed to you ASAP.

You may also share the link above with friends and family. Every person who signs up is a potential match.

Second Collection This Weekend July 20-21: Mission Appeal

Each year, the San Francisco Archdiocese invites missionaries to share their work of the Gospel being accomplished in the Missions. The money collected goes specifically to each diocese making the appeal. The Missions depend upon your generous support.

This weekend, we welcome Bishop Emmanuel Fianu of the Diocese of Ho in Ghana to St. Isabella's Church. Bishop Emmanuel will talk at all weekend Masses, and share stories of his ministry and home country of Ghana.

Thank you for supporting the Mission Appeal.
