Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 18:21-35

Enormous ingratitude considering a precise similar situation of a debt owed where mercy was given to him and he would not show mercy to a debtor who asked for mercy of his debt. In any culture this man would be despised for his cruelty, indifference and injustice.

From the Pulpit

As St. Isabella's staff has now been restructured, the future is to restructure the parish and bring it into the 21st Century. God be with us in this. But for the first time in our parish history, this is where we will be going if we are to have a future, and not be a problem. What it does mean, you will have to make some sacrifices. That is what the change means. And I am going to make sure, it will not harm the Faith in any way.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

PS. I am interested in your views of parish restructuring.

Parish News

Mr. Charlie Luchessa has been running Confirmation classes for over 31 years at no expense to the parish. That must be 1,000 teenagers have passed through his care. The parish will always remain in your debt and we cannot ever repay your sacrifices to our community.

September

National Suicide Prevention Month. The prevention number is 1-800-273-8255. It is okay to feel not okay. There is nothing wrong with seeking help.

Retreat

Nantes Cathedral Fire, France July 18, 2020

A 39 year old volunteer has been arrested and charged with intentionally setting the fires. He is a Rwandan citizen. His motive remains a mystery as he is not speaking to authority. The Cathedral incurred minor damage.

St. Matthias

Replaced Judas Iscariot as an Apostle, lots were cast between Matthias and Joseph Barsabbas. He preached in Judea and on the shores of the Caspian Sea. He was stoned to death in Jerusalem. He is buried in St. Matthias Abbey, Trier, Germany. He is the only Apostle not called by Christ but chosen by the Apostles. He was with Jesus throughout his 3 year ministry.

Old Testament casting lots involved placing two stones into a pot filled with water. One name on each stone, shaken around until one stone flops out. The idea is God has chosen his Apostle in this case.

Marin County - churches reopening delayed

Marin county officials on September 4th had a meeting informing the church group (Place of Worship) that as of September 8th, we would enter the RED tier, meaning we could go inside the church to hold services, observing the same safety protocols as the outside services. Then on September 8th, a news release announcing "The County of Marin was notified late Monday night by the State of California that the planned move to Tier 2 in the state's COVID-19 monitoring framework has been delayed. Marin County will remain in Tier 1 - the most restrictive status - while the state conducts further review. This is delaying business reopening ..., including indoor houses of worship ..."
