Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 22 : 34 - 40

This is the core of our religion, to love God with all our heart, our mind and soul, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Everything else is just a commentary, a spelling out of the implication of these commands. It makes no sense to say I am a religious person and display no love to our brothers and sisters.

Parish News

Congratulations to 56 confirmed into the Catholic Church on October 23, 2020. This sacrament means the Church needs you to be active in your parishes and share your talents with your spiritual community.

R.C.I.A.

Close to 70 candidates & confirmandi are now doing their first confession (Sacrament of Reconciliation) during the month of October. Thank you to Judy Rosenbloom and her team for all their volunteer works.

Part 1 of 2

October is the month to think and pray for the sanctity of life in our homes and in our parishes. The University of Notre Dame carried out a survey asking Americans what they believe about abortion, why they believe it and what factors influenced those beliefs. The results found Americans do not uphold abortion as a happy event, a desirable good and something they want more of.

Did you know

American adults believe the fundamental design and structure of the U.S. government needs significant changes.

From the Pulpit

The destruction of statues is a childish way of dealing with modern day issues. Destroying statues do not bother me though it is criminal behavior. Statues can always be replaced. What bothers me is the thrashing of the memory of a good man who did his best in life under appalling conditions in service to God and love for his flock (Junipero Serra).

“Mercy is a journey that departs from the heart and arrives to the hands.”
... Pope Francis

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O’Sullivan

Happy Halloween

Halloween originated in Ireland as the Celtic festival of Samhain around a thousand years ago, which is why so many of Halloween traditions – regardless of where you are in the world – are Irish! Halloween was originally a pagan ancient Irish festival called “Samhain,” meaning “end of summer.”

Congratulations to Rita & Patrick Kiely.
May they have a long & happy life together.
