Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 1 : 40 - 45

The healing of a leper is a life death situation so this is more than having to live with an illness, this disease takes your life. This miracle then is giving life back to the leper. People were terrified of leprosy for fear of contagion, yet Jesus was not. He touched the leper which no other human beings would do. Whatever our illnesses may be, Jesus reaches out to us as to the leper.

The Synod

One of the first decisions of the Synod from Dioceses around the world is marriage is a union between a man and a woman. This is the biblical text of this union and anything short of that is reinventing Scriptures.

Christology

There is a tendency today that we have to move with the culture and make changes necessary to accommodate to that culture. The Catholic Church sees differently. In the Scriptures in almost every circumstance, when Christ meets people, it is a call to conversion. It is always you need to make changes to the Gospel, not the Gospel changes to you. Many religions (Protestants) have accommodated so far to culture that they have lost the foundations of their faith.

Catholic Trivia

1. The woman at the well?
2. How many Popes are named Peter?
3. Diocese of Boise is where?

5th Council of the Church

2nd Council of Constantinople, 533 A.D. The Emperor decided that not only did he have secular power but also religious power over the Church, therefore he is Christ's Vicar. This was totally rejected at the Council. 1,000 year later King Henry VIII will claim this authority over the Protestant Churches, where to this the monarchy, king or queen, is the Head of the Church.

Masonic Orders and the Church

No member of the Catholic Hierarchy can be a member of the Freemasons. The Masons are at odds with the Catholic Church. They oppose Catholics morals and teachings of Catholicism. They do not state Jesus is Messiah and Saviour. Actually Freemasonry is not a religion and is not included in the listing of Christian Churches.

Mondays —5PM Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed by the Holy Rosary & Divine Mercy Chaplet. Everyone is welcome.

Did you know?

The biggest consumer of ice cream in the worlds is the U.S.

Lenten Begins

This Wednesday, February 14th is Ash Wednesday. Ashes will be distributed during the 8:30 AM Mass and at 7 PM Mass in the evening.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan

February marks one year since a team of cooks from St. Isabella's returned to the kitchen at the homeless shelter following a 3-year shutdown due to the pandemic. The new facility, Jonathan's Place, was built on the site of the Mill Street Homeless Shelter and has a state-of-the-art kitchen. A huge thank you to Rita Moore, Kathy Carrasco, Nancy Marcone, Diane Dillon, and Teresa Tyhurst. We will be back in the kitchen again on Monday, Feb 12. To help cook, provide food, or donate money, or for more info, please call Ellen Dederian at 415-479-0972. Thank you.

SVDP Needs your help

The St. Isabella St. Vincent de Paul Conference receives over 20 calls per month from community members needing assistance with rent, food or utilities. Occasional assistance with these necessary expenses can improve the lives of our neighbors, and help prevent homelessness. The Conference needs additional volunteers to continue this work. Bi-lingual Spanish/English volunteers are especially needed, even for 1 or 2 hours/month. We meet once a month and each person volunteers time, as available, to help our neighbors, and work on fund-raising projects. You can help with this worthy cause.
