The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Luke 9 : 11b - 17

What has brought Roman Catholics together as a Faith community from the beginning is the Eucharist. It remains true to our time. The Church has never lost sight in its 2000 years history the command to "Do This in Memory of Me."

Pope Francis

Let's not our lives be so routine, we fail to see the miracle of life.

Catechesis

Should we be ringing bells during the Mass?

It certainly has been a tradition for centuries. That said, some churches do not ring bells at all. Some churches do as a dimension to the sacred of the Mass. Something important is happening, an example at the consecration.

A father speaks

A father who has a special needs son says, sure he needs extra special care, but what's that to the love beyond measures every day he returns. I can truly say, I have a saint who lives in my house.

Did you know?

Average person lives 27,375 days.

Type of Prayers

Spiritual books is an awesome way to uplift the soul. A quick Google reveals 1,000s of books. Almost all of religious bookstores have closed. No one walking through the doors. Our loss.

Another Kentucky Derby Feat

A man bought a Madonna & Child painting for $30.00 at an estate sale. He has found out his painting is worth $50 million, by famous artist, Durer.

The Mass (Part 1 of 6)

Some people are into liturgical style. Good music, good homily, good vestments, good furnitures, stained glass windows, etc. If that is not offered, they do not return again. Others are there for community and the real presence. Other styles of liturgy matter less to them. I would say a good mix enhances what we try to do at Eucharist. Bring our gifts and talents to the altar so liturgy comes alive. Can you imagine two people making liturgy compared to ten, or 20 people compared to 50. What would it be like if a 100 people were involved in liturgy, 200, the whole community. You would be shocked at the power of liturgy. Maybe one Sunday, we will give this a chance.

"One has to make time for things that are important."

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
