From the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THE LAMB OF GOD

“Behold the Lamb of God!” We hear this phrase every Sunday at Mass, but there’s a good chance that many Roman Catholics do not know who originally said it. The phrase appears only in the Gospel of John, on the lips of John the Baptist, who utters it twice. In today’s Gospel reading, John proclaims Jesus as the Lamb of God, and two of John’s own disciples then follow Christ. A little bit later Andrew, who heard John and then followed Jesus, brings his brother Simon to be re-named Cephas, or Peter. A careful look at these Bible verses shows us the mission of everyone baptized into the Body of Christ: we must always proclaim our faith in Christ, so that others will follow him.

We may not know how the will of God might work through those we bring to Christ; that is not the point. The point is that each baptized person is to share the faith with those they meet through their example and our mission as a church is to bring others to Christ, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.

United in Prayer Always,

/s/ Fr. Mark Reburiano

Important Announcement

Due to health considerations during this flu season, we are temporarily suspending offering the cup to the assembly and shaking hands during the Sign of Peace.

If you are not feeling well, please refrain from holding hands during the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, and take the Body of Christ by hand. We will let parishioners know by announcement when these practices resume. Thank you!
