Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10 : 38—42

Two sisters with their brother running a farm would be working from sunrise to sunset. The only difference between the sisters was Mary could take time out to enjoy friends, conversation, reflection, prayer, hospitality, charity, family time, time for self, and for Faith. Martha is so business-minded that there is always more work to be done and loses out on the simple but loving human experiences of living life.

Pope Francis

Everyone is not called to be proactive in Pro-Life. But we are called to pray for the Pro-Life cause.

Vatican Trivia

Why is red the color of Cardinals?

Symbolic of the willingness to shed blood for the Faith. Started 500 years ago by Pope Paul II. The color chosen is deep red between scarlet and crimson. (Don't know the cost of their cassocks.)

Catechesis

Why does the priest kiss the altar at Mass?

Altars contain relics of saints thus he reverences their sainthood. Also the altar is where we are fed with divine food.

Some Catholic High Schools

They offer a corporate work-study program. It exposes students to real world job experiences. One student put it, "You see multi-million dollar people coming into work and you don't even know they are multi-million dollar people." This corporate study program opens one eyes to the seriousness of life and the many career opportunities possible.

Is there a Catholic moral order to gambling? (Part 1 of 3)

Sporting events. Billions of dollars changes hands through wagers on winner losers, point spread and now prop bets which extends to wagers on

1. Which team wins the coin toss
2. Which team scores the first touchdown
3. Which team makes the first quarterback sack
4. Which team score the first three points kick

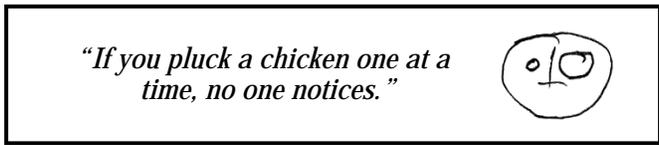

Its endless so much the adrenaline is more the wagering than the sport itself.

Did you know?

The official sport of California. Surfing.

Parish field

The school is adding a playground for the older kids in the school.

Yours in Fraternity,
Fr. Cyril O'Sullivan
